Upcoming Sunday Programs (10:15 to 11:30 am)

May 7 – The Women’s March

One day after the inauguration of Donald Trump as the 45th President of the United States, millions of protesters across the United States and the world marched and rallied. St. Paul Police estimate between 90,000-100,000 protesters attended the march from St. Paul College to the rally at the Minnesota State Capitol on Saturday.

Pilgrim House member Sue Grosse-Macemon went to the Women's March in Washington, D.C. with her daughter after the election threatened the rights of women, immigrants, GLBTQ individuals, minorities and basically anyone that disagreed with the newly elected administration. The March was inspiring and upon her return she joined an Indivisible Group and is heading up the Climate Change committee.

Dawn VanRyn-Olson also participated in the Women's March in Washington, D.C. with her daughter. She is particularly concerned about the attacks on women's reproductive rights and the increasing outward hostility towards immigrant and GLBTQ individuals and communities. She has started an Indivisible group.

May 14 – Governor Arne Carlson

Our faith asked to hear from a moderate Republican on today's issues. There is no other who would fit that characterization better in Minnesota than Arne Helge Carlson, Sr. who served as the 37th Governor of the state of Minnesota.

May 21 – The Orthodox Faith

Continuing our exploration of neighboring faiths for both adults and youth we present Matt Miller Professor of World Languages and History at University of Northwestern in Saint Paul. The Orthodox Faith is the second largest Christian church in the world mostly in Eastern Europe, Slavic, and some African cultures.

May 28 – No program -Memorial Day weekend

June 4 – Flower Communion and the Pilgrim House Annual Meeting

Capek of Prague, Czechoslovakia. The Flower Ceremony was introduced to the United States by Rev. Maya Capek, Norbert's widow. Also, there will be a presentation by the youth on their year long sojourn into the study of neighboring faiths. Stay for lunch provided by the board. This is the date of the Annual Meeting. GREAT DECISIONS AT PILGRIM HOUSE*May 4 – Prospects for Pakistan and Afghanistan

Major internal conflict has plagued Afghanistan for four decades. The U.S., for its part, has conducted military operations in the country nearly continuously since 9/11. Today, war with the Taliban persists, and tensions between the U.S. and Pakistan have gradually deteriorated. As his time in office drew to a close, President Obama limited further withdrawal of U.S. troops from Afghanistan. The incoming administration has a choice: will it maintain the status quo, completely reverse the Obama administration drawdown or withdraw completely? Does the U.S. face a no-win situation in Afghanistan and Pakistan?

Our speaker is M. Jay Shahidi.

PILGRIM HOUSE DISCUSSION ABOUT “WHITE SUPREMACY”

As our Easter speaker Andrea Johnson noted, some recent events have brought home ways in which our national denomination’s actual practices don’t always match its stated principles of racial justice and full inclusion. This has led the UUA to encourage all local congregations to educate themselves on what they are calling white supremacy. This does not mean anybody is being accused of racism. It does mean that we are called to examine ways in which our actions, as individuals and/or organizations, may unintentionally perpetuate inequitable situations – and what we can do better. A volunteer group of PH members will be working this spring and summer to plan a PH discussion about this topic. To be part of the planning group, or to simply offer a thought or suggestion, please contact one of the following: Ellen Shelton; Michelle Gardner; Sharon Borg.
